Your lives have ended.

How you use your new lives is up to me.

That's the theory.

OUR STORY UNTIL NOW

INTRODUCTION

The year is 2005.

On the way to a field trip, a school bus meets with a sudden accident. Those who died awaken in an abandoned room in an elementary school.
Just as Kei Kurona is taking an interest in the shy boy, Naiki, the students are teleported away by the black ball known as GANTZ. Although Naiki dies, 5 others clear the Zoo Mission safely.
Intent on reviving Naiki, the girls receive intense training from the mysterious college students, Abiko and Fujimoto, in preparation for the next mission.
At last, the transfer commences. Inside a scenic aquarium, they find the target, Mermaid Alien, with a slain Fujimoto in tow. With such a tragic start to the mission, will the 5 girls return safely?
